

MYTH

FEMA does not grant temporary housing assistance to survivors in hotels participating in FEMA's Transitional Sheltering Assistance program.

FACT

FEMA's Transitional Sheltering Assistance is a sheltering program that provides short-term hotel stays until survivors can find longer-term housing.

Participants in this program may also receive rental assistance, home repair grants or other temporary housing assistance.